Winter Wonderland Frequently Asked Questions

What can I expect for Day Lights experience?
Visitors will enjoy the indoor decorations, conservatory greenhouses, Farmer and the Fork Café, the Garden Shop, and more. Although the outdoor lights are off during daytime hours, the grounds provide opportunities for walks, hikes, and even snowshoeing (weather permitting). Families with children will enjoy the scavenger hunts, a model train, discovery backpacks, hands-on Library activities, and more. Those visitors who enjoy their winter days outdoors will admire the seasonal beauty of our gardens and woods. Visiting during the day in December is an easy way to skip the crowds to enjoy lunch with friends, do some shopping, or escape the dropping temperatures by appreciating the greenery — and blooming flowers! — of our subtropical conservatories.

How much does it cost?
The daytime experience is included with general admission. Tower Hill members enjoy free daytime admission to Winter Wonderland. Non-member daytime admission rates can be found here.

When are you open?
Tower Hill is open for daytime visits Wednesday through Sunday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., except Christmas Eve, Christmas Day and New Year’s Eve. (Last admission at 2:30 p.m.) All visitors leave before the property closes at 3pm.

Is Tower Hill’s Winter Wonderland accessible for wheelchairs and strollers?
The Stoddard Education & Visitors Center, the Orangerie, the Limonaia, the Court: A Garden Within Reach, the Lawn Garden, the Winter Garden, the Reading Garden, the Entry Garden, the Secret Garden, and the Systematic Garden are wheelchair and stroller accessible. We have several wheelchairs available to borrow.

Can I visit during the day and wait for the outdoor lights to come on?
The entire property will be closed from 3 p.m. to 4 p.m. This includes the gardens, gate, parking, grounds, and buildings. No guests are allowed to linger after 3pm.

Do you offer a group rate?
Yes. Groups of 10 or more save 10% on daytime admission to Winter Wonderland. Please contact Suzanne Hauerstein at 508.869.6111 x175 or shauerstein@towerhillbg.org for more information.
