CONFLICT OF INTEREST

Section 1  Policy

It is the policy of the Society that its Trustees, its staff, and all others acting on its behalf avoid ethical, legal, and financial conflicts of interest. These persons should ensure that their outside activities and interests neither conflict with, nor appear to conflict with, either their obligations to the Society or the welfare of the Society. Essential to this policy are (i) written disclosure of outside activities and affiliations which might give rise to conflicts; (ii) abstention from participation in any matter involving an actual or apparent conflict; (iii) availability of advice regarding any doubtful situation; and (iv) the establishment of procedures for decision-making and monitoring.

Section 2  Disclosure

Disclosure is required of all Trustees, staff, and other persons acting on behalf of the Society (i) who are in a position to make decisions for the Society favoring any outside interest or (ii) who reasonably may expect to derive any financial benefit, directly or indirectly, from the Society. Any such Trustee, staff member, or other person should submit a written report whenever a possible conflict, actual or apparent, arises. In addition, all Trustees, staff, and other persons acting on behalf of the Society should submit annual written reports acknowledging awareness of this policy and either affirming that they have no conflict of interest or identifying any interests that are in conflict or have the potential for conflict. All reports should be submitted (i) by the staff to the Executive Director, (ii) by the Executive Director and Trustees to the President, or (iii) by the President to the Executive Committee.
Section 3  Abstention

No Trustee, employee, or other person acting for the Society should participate in any planning or decision-making process in which they have an actual or apparent conflict of interest. Section 4  Advice

Judgments may sometimes differ as to whether there is an actual or apparent conflict of interest. Anyone in doubt should seek advice from the appropriate committee or person to whom a conflict report would be rendered.

Section 5  Decisions

a) All annual reports and special reports made under this policy will be referred to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall decide how the Society should proceed. In uncertain or difficult cases the Executive Committee shall refer the matter to the Board for decision. All decisions of the Executive Committee and the Board shall be set forth in the minutes of the meeting in which the decision is made.

b) In arriving at a decision, the following principles shall be considered:
   (i) The Society should not engage in any transaction or arrangement the propriety of which is open to question.
   (ii) The Society should not use its financial resources or other resources for the financial benefit of any Trustee, employee, or other affiliated person, unless the circumstances leave no doubt that the Society’s decision is in its own best interests.
   (iii) The Society should not enter into any contract or other arrangement entailing payment for goods or services if it is aware of any actual or potential conflict of interest unless the Society has decided to waive the conflict.
   (iv) A conflict of interest may be waived only by a recorded vote of the Executive Committee or the Board.

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1    Persons Indemnified

This Article applies to the Society’s Trustees, officers, employees, volunteers, and agents, as well as to agents of any other organization who serve at the Society’s request on any employee benefit plan in which the Society participates. All of the persons to whom the preceding sentence refers are identified in the remainder of this Article as “Indemnitees.” The indemnification contemplated by this Article shall be provided although the person to be indemnified (i) is no longer an officer, director, employee, agent, or volunteer of the Society or of such other organization or (ii) no longer serves with respect to any such employee benefit plan.

Except as provided in the next sentence, the liabilities to which this Article applies are all claims, demands, debts, judgments, and expenses, including reasonable attorneys’ fees, suffered or incurred by an Indemnitee by reason of their past or present status or service as a Trustee, officer, employee, agent, or volunteer. No indemnification shall be provided for any person with respect to any matter as to which they shall have been adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that their action was in the best interests of the Society or, to the extent that such matter relates to service with respect to any employee benefit plan, in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of such employee benefit plan. The liabilities to which this Article applies are identified in the remainder of this article as “Liabilities.”

Section 3  Obligation to Indemnify

The Society shall indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnitiors from and against all Liabilities. Such indemnification shall include payment by the Society of all reasonable expenses which an Indemnitee reasonably incurs in defending a civil or criminal action or proceeding in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by the Indemnitee to refund such payment if they are subsequently adjudicated not to be entitled to indemnification under this Article. The Society shall accept such undertaking without reference to the Indemnitee’s financial ability to make repayment.

Section 4  Effect upon Other Powers and Rights

Nothing in this Article shall be construed as a limitation upon (I) the Society’s power or duty to indemnify persons or entities under any contract or law, or upon (ii) the right of any person or entity to seek indemnification from the Society under any contract or law.

Article XIV
INTERPRETATION
